MYNX HAIR

Julie Piantadosi

CEO, Total Salon Solutions

Julie Piantadosi is a no nonsense modern-day woman, who's raw and uncensored approach to business coaching has transformed hair and beauty salons the world over.

Her vast wealth of business knowledge and experience, combined with her highly contagious positive spirit, make her a powerful and effective business and life coach.

Julie Piantadosi is the beauty industry's most sort after business presenter. Julie's customer service training and retail selling is transforming the industry and raising new standards and benchmarks. Her sessions are empowering her audience and giving them new tools and systems to take back into their business and apply them immediately so they can achieve more profit and more loyal clients. Julie has appeared on television and in magazines around the world.

A member of the National Speakers Association of Australia, Julie is twice nominated for Telstra's Business Woman Of The Year and Entrepreneur Of The Year Finalist.

A qualified hairdresser and beauty therapist, she opened her first salon at the age of 17 and is no stranger to hard work, long days/nights and the relentless highs and lows of being a business owner.

From humble beginnings, Julie's business portfolio today is comprised of a highly profitable chain of hair & beauty salons, an organic produce farm, numerous property developments and a successful international business-coaching career.

Her exhilarating business seminars explore the steps necessary to achieve and maintain success, no matter what your beginnings. Highlighting what it really takes to make the shift from ordinary to extraordinary and create a business and life which will exceed your wildest dreams.

Whether speaking to a room of five hundred guests or a salon of five, Julie's candid and honest approach to business is refreshing, uplifting and most importantly, it WORKS!
