
Make over my Salon

Transforming your business starts here

One on one coaching

Make over my salon

Have the industry's most sort after trainer, coach and motivator live in person in your salon or spa for an entire day. This business transformation session will completely change the way you operate your business.

Julie will custom a training session to individually suit your business needs.

From leadership and mindset sessions to retail selling and attitude adjusting or a complete business transformation. A full day and evening completely dedicated to the salon owner and their team. Each session will include a tailored workshop, workbooks for each team member and an action plan guaranteed to increase sales and boost team moral- reprogramming the way you work, think and live your life!

Call total salon solution office for more details and prices

08 8330 4020